

WPBA minimum evidence requirements: full time training

The minimum evidence requirements described below are based on a standard three-year specialty training programme, with 18 months of hospital posts and 18 months in general practice.

GP specialty training year one (ST1)

minimum requirements prior to 12 month review	6 x mini-CEX (if in secondary care) / COT (if in primary care) 6 x CbD 2 x MSF (each with a minimum of 5 replies from clinicians plus 5 non-clinicians if in primary care) 1 x PSQ (if in primary care) CEPS as appropriate clinical supervisors report from each hospital post
---	--

GP Speciality Training Year Two (ST2)

minimum requirements prior to 24 month review	6 x mini-CEX (if in secondary care) / COT (if in primary care) 6 x CbD 1 x PSQ (if in primary care and not already completed in ST1) CEPS as appropriate clinical supervisors report from each hospital post
---	--

GP Speciality training year three (ST3)

minimum requirements prior to 34 month review	12 x CbD 12 x COT 2 x MSF (each with 5 clinicians and 5 non-clinicians) 1 x PSQ
---	--

There are different WPBA minimum evidence requirements for less than full time trainees, those on four year training programmes and academic trainees.

WPBA for less than full time trainees, four year training programmes and academic trainees

